

EXHIBIT A
AFFIDAVIT OF ROBIN TERRAZAS

AFFIDAVIT

“My name is Robin Terrazas; I am over the age of eighteen, and am capable of providing this statement and affidavit.

“I am providing this statement and affidavit of my own personal knowledge, freely and willingly, as part of a lawsuit filed by the Albert Sidney Johnston chapter, No. 2060 against the City of San Antonio.

“I am the President of the Albert Sidney Johnston chapter No. 2060. I have held that position since 2016. As President, I am responsible for the meetings and the various committees, as well as spokesman for the chapter. The ASJ chapter No. 2060 succeeded to the Barnard E. Bee chapter in 1972. When Barnard Bee dissolved in 1972, the last president of that chapter, Mrs. Oldham (Oldom), and another member visited our chapter and presented a certified copy of the city ordinance giving us the right to use the land in the center of Travis Park. The BEB chapter gave us that Ordinance in case any problem might come up in the future. Our chapter understood this discussion to mean a verbal agreement that we assume their interests in the Travis Park monument.

“Attached is a true and correct copy of our board minutes from January 13, 1972 which reflect that Mrs. Oldham (Oldom) would attend our meeting and the January 20, 1972 chapter meeting minutes which record her visit. This was the meeting where she indicated she wanted us to take care of and maintain the Travis Park monument. Our chapter agreed to do so. It was a verbal agreement from her chapter to ours. Under the rules of the UDC as I understand them, this would qualify as a transfer of ownership from one chapter to another chapter.

“Also attached to my statement is a true and correct copy of the City of San Antonio Ordinance dated March 27, 1899. The Ordinance reflects that the City gave the use of the land beneath the monument to the ‘Daughters of the Confederacy.’ I interpret that to mean the City gave the use of the land to the Daughters of the Confederacy. The ASJ chapter is part of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, as was the BEB chapter. This copy of the Ordinance has remained part of our chapter records. I received this from long time member Theresa Gold, who was president in 1999 and planned the rededication of the statue in Travis Park.

Also attached to my statement is a true and correct copy of the City of San Antonio Ordinance dated March 27, 1899. The Ordinance reflects that the City gave the use of the land beneath the monument to the "Legislature of the Confederacy," in order that no man in the City have the use of the land to the Disgrace of the Confederacy. The City Engineer's part of the United D rights of the Confederacy, as was the 1898 chapter. The copy of the Ordinance has remained part of our chapter records. I received this from a copy the member James Gold, who was president in 1999 and placed the Ordinance in the records of the City of San Antonio.

“The Barnard E. Bee chapter could have given that Ordinance to any chapter in the area. But, they gave it to our chapter. They expected us to take care of the monument the same way they would have. We agreed to take care of it as best we could. I hope we have done so. The copy of the ordinance is certified. The copy cut off the certification which is at the bottom of the page. The certification states that it was certified on Dec. 10, 1953 by an Assistant City Clerk. The name of the clerk appears to be Elenor W. Starbeck.

“Later, the Barnard E. Bee chapter also transferred its cemetery deed to us. A copy of that deed is also attached to my statement. This is the Confederate cemetery on the east side of San Antonio. Other people are buried there, too. But, it started as a cemetery for Confederate veterans and their families, back when many families of Confederate veterans did not have money for burial. Mrs. Oldom and another member joined our chapter that same year.

“On Aug. 4, I sent Jacquelyn Salvador a copy of the 1899 Ordinance, in which the City gave us use of the land beneath the monument. She works in Municipal Archives. She had asked me about ownership of the monument. I sent her information about the Barnard Bee chapter and that we succeeded to the Barnard Bee chapter.

“Also attached is a copy of the minutes from the 1972 UDC Convention. The second page indicates that Mrs. Fred Oldom turned in the charter for the Barnard E. Bee chapter. This is a true and correct copy of those minutes which are kept at the Texas Division office.

“The UDC Handbook for Texas states that when a chapter disbands, it must send its charter to the state headquarters, which we refer to as ‘Texas Division.’ But, the chapter can then limit what goes to state. The BEB chapter limited by giving to the ASJ chapter their interest in the Travis Park monument and the cemetery.
